

FREDRICK D. SCOTT

“The most important lesson I’ve learned in my 18+ year career is that relationships make the world go around. The way you treat and value people, and demonstrate that value through genuineness, authenticity, appreciation, and accretive value add will be the difference maker in any endeavor you undertake.”

BIO

Fredrick D. Scott is a dynamic force in private capital markets, pioneering innovation at the intersection of finance, technology, and entrepreneurship. As the Founder, Chairman, and CEO of VBC Holding Corp Inc. (“VBCHC”)—along with its wholly owned subsidiaries, Venture Backed, PMI Systems, and GovTech Innovations—Fredrick is redefining how capital, technology, and strategic intelligence converge to drive global impact. His forward-thinking leadership has fueled cutting-edge strategies and a groundbreaking digital engagement and social networking platform that fosters transparency, accountability, and high-impact collaboration across industries.

A seasoned financial analyst, investor, mentor, and software developer, Fredrick identified a critical gap in portfolio company management—transparency and accountability. To bridge this gap, he developed the Private Market Intelligence (PMI) system, an enterprise-grade B2B SaaS solution that has become a cornerstone of the Venture Backed platform. Under his leadership, VBCHC has attracted an elite Board of Directors, C-suite executives, and an Advisory Board composed of current and former Senior Executives from Accenture, Microsoft, Amazon, and key players in venture capital.

Fredrick’s professional expertise is backed by a suite of industry accreditations, including:

- Financial Modeling & Valuation Analyst (FMVA) Certification
- Capital Markets & Securities Analyst (CMSA) Certification
- Commercial Banking & Credit Analyst (CBCA) Certification from the Corporate Finance Institute (CFI)

Additionally, Fredrick is a Microsoft Advertising Certified Professional and holds a Diploma in Islamic Finance from the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA). He also earned an MBA from the University of London and is fluent in Italian, Korean, and German.

With nearly two decades of institutional finance experience, Fredrick has played a pivotal role in:

- IPOs, M&A, and leveraged buyouts
- Structured finance and balance sheet recaps
- Capital raising, fairness opinions, and analyst opinions
- Financial modeling, valuation, and institutional credit analysis

His background also includes three decades of software development and infrastructure expertise, further strengthening his ability to drive innovative solutions in financial technology.

Beyond business, Fredrick is a passionate advocate for entrepreneurial mentorship and community development. He has served as a mentor for:

- MIT Solve
- Northwestern Mutual Black Founder Accelerator
- Defy Ventures
- Stand Together Venture Labs
- 1000 Black Voices

He also holds a Board Advisory role at LabEight*, serves as a Judge and Mentor for NASA MITTIC, and is a Founding Member of the NASA MITTIC Partnerships Council. As a Contributing Writer for Entrepreneur Magazine, Fredrick actively shares insights on venture capital, leadership, and innovation, reinforcing his commitment to empowering the next generation of entrepreneurs and investors.
